HONEST TO GOD

A shortened and edited version of the "Pastor's Annual Report". Just in case you missed it the first time around. Or, a better version than the first?

I like the story of the young woman who wanted to go to college, but her heart sank when she read the question on the application blank that asked, "Are you a leader?" Being both honest and conscientious, she wrote, "No," and returned the application, expecting the worst. To her surprise, she received this letter from the college: "Dear Applicant: A study of the application forms reveals that this year our college will have 1,464 new leaders. We are accepting you because we feel it is imperative that they have at least one follower."

What an epiphany story! It is true, leaders certainly need followers, often the latter, the more essential. My former associate in ministry, Bob Howard, liked to encourage his young side kick that we be good "foot soldiers", reminding us of the importance of duty and service. However, the better part of this story is how the quality of "honesty" gets highlighted. In a world that doesn't blink at one's overstating the facts to appear more desirable, it's refreshing to hear a simple and honest answer. Evidently, the admission office felt the same way. The young applicant dared to be honest about who she was and who she was not, and her evaluators dared to qualify her as acceptable for owning up to such a rare commodity.

I am reminded of all the "call" stories throughout Scripture. God called people, not because of their long lists of credentials. Rather, God called those who appeared least expecting.

They were as common as anyone, except for that one trait, their willingness to trust, willing to partner up with a bigger and better Power than themselves. People like Abraham and Sarah, Moses, King David, Jesus' mother Mary, Joseph, the shepherds, alien wise men from afar, not to mention unknown and uneducated disciples who dared to follow Jesus into parts unknown. All these were least expecting, unpretentious, honest in the sense that they did not think too highly of themselves. Such honesty can expect opportunity. Perhaps God makes unexpected offers to unexpected people because given such, there can be no expected answer.... other than "only if you come along, only if you stay by my side." And God always has an answer for that kind of response. We'll never go it alone!

As we move on into the future as God's people in this time and place, may we take a lesson from that young woman who wanted to go to college. May we answer our hope for acceptance and our desire to witness, honestly and conscientiously. After all, we are who we are. God already knows us best. If we but offer such credentials, don't be surprised to hear, "By the way, I have something in mind. Would you be interested?"

It continues to be my privilege to walk with you, as your pastor, friend, and witness to the one who will always be with us. Honest to God!

Pastor Steve

SOUPER BOWL SUNDAY IS FEBRUARY 1st.

Traditionally we collect monetary donations in a big soup pot at the back of the church on Super Bowl Sunday. 100% of donations are given to local food kitchens and pantries. In so doing we join thousands of churches across the nation in raising millions of dollars for the hungry. What a way to make this day a SOUPER Sunday!

COUNCIL SUMMARY

Purchase of the defibrillator and wall mount is a work in progress.

A rebate from National Grid for our new boiler and hot water tank has been applied for.

The preliminary Annual Budget which included recommended raises for Pastor Cordes and Donna VanZandt was approved by the council for presentation to the congregation on January 18th at the Annual Congregational Meeting. The raises are based on the suggested percentage of 1.5% provided by the Synod. The proposed budget was subsequently passed at the 2015 Congregational Meeting.

Officers and Committee Members for 2015 will be elected at the February meeting.

The council wishes to thank the members who have completed their terms for their fine service and wish a warm welcome to the newly elected members.

Council will hold its' next meeting on March 2, 2015 questions or concerns can be discussed with any Council Member.

Joyce Duncan, Secretary

There is not a lot of news to share this time of year regarding Sunday School. Classes have returned to normal and things will remain fairly calm until the Easter season starts. I am hoping to organize a late winter activity for the students, perhaps a bowling or a laser tag event. It is always fun to get together with everyone outside the classroom.

Enjoy the winter weather!

OUR FAITH at WORK

Our mission offerings for the month of February will be in support of the important work of Jeff and Sissie D'Jernes as Wycliffe Bible Translators.

Jeff and Sissie work to translate the Bible into the language used by the Arop-Lokep people of Papua, New Guinea. This is not a simple task. The Bible cannot be translated literally from English into this language. Our languages are so very different that such a translation would not make sense to the Arop-Lokep people. The translator must immerse himself into their culture in order to make an understandable translation. The D'Jernes' have been working in New Guinea for many years and count on the support they receive from congregations like ours to continue their work.

Thank you for your continued support.

Carol Perrott, Missions

We will continue the study at the February meeting which will be on Tuesday, February 17th at 10:00 AM at the Church. Kay reported a balance of $157.54 in the treasury. New Baptismal napkins have been ordered since the supply is nearly depleted. Evelyn read the list of activities WELCA did during 2014 which was a busy year.

Renewals of Little Lutheran subscriptions for Sunday School children will be sent this month. If you have a child in the 4 – 7 age range that you would like to have receive the magazine, let Joyce Duncan know (along with the mailing address).
