Following Faith

September 2016

Ready...Set...
Ready...Set...
Ready...Set...

Dear Church,

I know that the word that follows is supposed to be "GO!" As in "Off to the races! Hurry up; let's go!"

That Ready-Set-Go series has been in my mind as I continue to begin my ministry with you at Faith. As an interim pastor, my goal with you has been to get oriented quickly, dive right in with you on whatever is most urgent, and help to efficiently set a path for our time together.

Yet even as I begin my fourth (!) month with you in September and we kick-off the fall with Rally Day on September 18th, I sometimes feel like I'm still just getting started. Am I very behind schedule if I feel like I still continue to begin?

Certainly we have already done some important things together and established some promising plans. I have enjoyed getting to know more of your stories, and shared in the joy of a wedding and the sadness of a funeral. The steeple repairs are set to begin, and preparations are well underway for the congregational study that will help you set the church's course into the future.

Still, at the start of each week, I find myself looking back and forth between my calendar and a collection of to-do lists and post-it notes, struggling with the same questions:

- ~ What is the most important thing to do next?
- ~ Who is the most important person or group of people to attend to?
- ~ What is God calling me to focus on right now?

When I mull those questions, there may be a tiny part of me that is procrastinating on other tasks like setting consistent office hours, hanging pictures in the office, and organizing files.

But there is a bigger part of me that thinks of those questions as an essential activity of my spiritual life and a necessary grounding for my ministry, like a navigator stopping at intervals to check coordinates on a journey.

The three questions above are a variation of questions posed in one of our family's favorite picture books, The Three Questions written and illustrated by John J. Muth, which is inspired by a much older short-story of the same title by the Russian author Leo Tolstoy.

My son Keller has outgrown picture books now, but I keep that one around. I find I often pull it off the shelf to loan out or sometimes to look through myself. The beautiful water color illustrations are rewarding for their own sake. I encourage you to check it out, even if you don't have anyone of the picture-book age in your house right now.

With some small variations, I think the questions fit most of us who are trying to walk with God, regardless of the particulars of our calendars, lists, and post-it notes. Much of scripture seems to me to pose those questions from one direction or another. The questions also capture pretty well the shared discernment we are called to do as Christian communities and as leaders, who should always be asking who and what God is calling us to focus on in a particular time.

As we transition this month to the quicker pace of fall and the specific challenges we have set out for ourselves at Faith Lutheran Church, I encourage us sometimes to pause, open ourselves to the breath of the Spirit in the moment,

...and continue to begin together.

Peace in Christ, Pastor Jennifer

The Council has decided to move forward with repair of the church steeple. Several roofing contractors were contacted regarding this project. Expenditure of up to $9,000 was approved at the last congregational meeting.

For any concerns or problems, please advise us. We will discuss and address issues at our next meeting on Tuesday September 13th, 2016 at 7pm.

AMONG OUR PEOPLE

Pastor Bill Hempel is recovering nicely after surgery to remove a kidney. Dave Cerrone has started new therapy to aid in his continued progress. Larry Boord continues with PT. He is seeing some improvement but still has a ways to go. Paul Moleskey - Is home and making progress. All of the above individuals have expressed that your prayers and remembrances are greatly appreciated.

Word was received that Betty Regan passed away in late July. Betty had been a long time member of Faith and most recently was living in Ohio. She was 94 years young. Her ashes were buried in Oakwood Cemetery on August 16th.

Just a reminder, that a Memorial Service celebrating the life of Dorothy Benzinger will be held at Faith on September 11th at 12:30 pm. Hope to see you there.

COUNCIL SUMMARY

Discussion and planning for the administration of the Church Assessment Tool (CAT) continued. The tool will be used to anonymously collect information on areas of church satisfaction/dissatisfaction, areas of importance and priorities for the church. The Council reviewed a sample results report as well as supplemental modules and additional questions that can be included in the assessment. The Council decided at the August 16th special Council meeting to stay with the original 85 questions and add 3 supplemental modules; critical

C.A.T.

(Church Assessment Tool)

Holy Cow! It's almost here! What you ask? C.A.T. is almost here. (Church Assessment Tool) If you read your July Newsletter, you know that the Church Council decided to implement an assessment tool called C.A.T. beginning on September 18th. The purpose of this assessment is to help the leaders of the church determine the needs of the church in conjunction with our search for a new minister. We are encouraging all congregants of Faith to participate. The more responses we have the better the assessment will help us. It is also our goal to make this assessment as painless as possible. You will be given the opportunity to participate and complete the C.A.T. by going to your computer and signing in or by completing a paper copy.

Mark your calendar. September 18th there will be a special congregational meeting following the church service to kick off the C.A.T. Instructions explaining how to use your computer for this along with hard copies will be provided. Keep in mind, all assessments will be anonymous. More details will be forthcoming, but in the meantime feel free to contact me or other Council members with your questions or concerns.

Soon, the CAT will be let out of the bag!

*Peace to you this day,
Donna Van Zandt, Council President*

Here it is – the first newsletter of the Sunday School year! Although it is warm right now, I think that we can all feel the end of summer approaching. Now it is time to get back into the routine. Sunday School will be starting with a “mini” rally day on Sunday, September 18. We welcome all new and returning students to join us for the kick off of the school year.

We are planning to resume a similar schedule to last year with Sunday School taking place during the first half of the church service, and then having the students come in to the church service after the sermon has concluded. This plan may be altered slightly during the year as we progress and discuss viable options for any improvements in the program. We are looking forward to working with Pastor Jennifer and can't wait to see what the year has in store.

See you in September!

Sara Martin, Education Director

OUR FAITH at WORK

Our mission for the month of September will be in support of Habitat for Humanity Rensselaer County (HfHRC).

Habitat for Humanity Rensselaer County was formed in 1997 because of the need for affordable housing for hard-working, lower-income Rensselaer County families who lived in substandard conditions.

Much of the support for HfHRC comes from churches, schools, and civic groups.

Volunteers provide most of the labor, and individual and corporate donors provide money and materials to build houses. Selected families contribute 400 hours toward construction and pay the full cost of their mortgages, insurance, and taxes. Loans are interest free.

Your continued support is appreciated.
